Art Unit: 1711

1. It is requested that applicants amend the continuing data within the specification to reflect the current status of application 09/654,735.

2. Claims 33-38 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

The Markush groups of claims 33, 35, and 37 are improper, because the species of the claimed groups should not be recited in the alternative. The “or” before “heterocyclic” should be “and”.

3. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the “right to exclude” granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

4. The terminal disclaimer filed on September 23, 2005 has been reviewed and is accepted. The terminal disclaimer has been recorded.

5. Claims 33-38 are provisionally rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over the following claims of the following copending applications:

Application	Claim
10/369,981	16 and 17
10/422,895	39
10/804,495	All
10/898,724	19 and 20
10/902,602	96 and 97
10/918,619	13 and 14

Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because each set of copending claims renders compositions containing urethanes derived from abietyl alcohol and either cyclohexyl isocyanate or isophorone diisocyanate obvious. In cases where abietyl alcohol is not specifically claimed, this species is rendered obvious by the claiming of fused ring alcohols.

Art Unit: 1711

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection because the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.

6. Claims 33-38 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over the following claims of the following allowed applications:

U.S. Patent	Claim
10/881,047	All
10/898,432	59 and 60

Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because each set of copending claims renders compositions containing urethanes derived from abietyl alcohol and either cyclohexyl isocyanate or isophorone diisocyanate obvious. In cases where abietyl alcohol is not specifically claimed, this species is rendered obvious by the claiming of fused ring alcohols.

The previously applied provisional rejection in view of these applications has been converted to a non-provisional rejection, in view of the fact that these applications have been allowed.

7. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
